Personal Identification Techniques Laboratory

I. Course Code: CPERSIDENTL
II. Course Name: Personal Identification Techniques Laboratory
III. Course Description: This course focuses on the development of latent prints found on the crime scene. Investigative techniques in locating fingerprints, proper application of different variety of fingerprints powder and proper development of the same is the highlight of the course.
IV. Course Learning Outcomes:
   CLO1: Conduct Criminological research on importance and application of the different personal identification techniques in investigation and detection crimes and criminal justice.
   CLO2: Demonstrate procedures in fingerprint identification techniques in crime detection and investigation.
   CLO3: Apply the principles of jurisprudence procedure in presenting fingerprint evidence in court proceeding.
   CLO4: Collaborate the fingerprint identification techniques effectively and independently in multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural teams.
   CLO5: Engage in lifelong learning and understanding on the development of personal identification techniques as a field in criminology.
   CLO6: Apply professional, social, and ethical standards in the practice of personal identification techniques.
V. No. of Units: 1
VI. Co-Requisite: CPERSIDENT
VII. No. of Units: Lec: 0 Lab: 1
VIII. No. of Hours Per Week: 3
IX. Course Outline:
   - Midterm
     - Introduction to Personal Identification
     - Identification Techniques and Procedure Applied
     - Terms to Ponder In Fingerprint
   - Finals
     - The Fingerprint Patterns And Ridge Characteristics
     - Identification of Latent Prints
     - Classification and Filing Of Fingerprints
     - Modern Technology in Fingerprint Identification
X. References:

XI. Requirements: Comply and pass all academic requirements

XII. Computation of Grades: The passing score is 50% of the total items in the examinations, while the passing grade for the semester is 75% or 3.00. The basis for the computation of the semester grade is as follows:

- Midterm grade: 70% Class standing and 30% midterm examination
- Final Grade: 70% Class standing and 30% final examination
- Semester grade: 50% midterm grade and 50% final grade